Address to the Private Secretary to His Highness

The humble Memorial of Jayaramma widow of Lingappa late a Kandachi in the Revenue Survey office.

Most respectfully Showeth:-

(1) That this is a humble application from a poor helpless widow seeking to be redeemed from a liability to Government which she is not able to discharge in her present unfortunate Condition.

(2) That her husband was an employe in the Revenue Survey office for over 24 years. When he had nearly completed his service he died of plague, leaving behind him the petitioner and three Children.

(3) That the petitioners husband was getting Rs 28/- a month, which was barely enough for maintenance after deducting the instalments due to Government, towards the repayment of the house building advance obtained by him.

(4) That out of an advance of

Rs 300/-, about Rs 120/- remains due to Government, and the Petitioner left as she is without means, is unable to meet this demand.

(5) That out of the three sons of the Petitioner, two are minors and all of them show such unpromising traits, that far from lessening a widows troubles they only add to her sorrows.

(6) That the Petitioner has already been sued by a creditor of her husband, and that she is not able to meet even this small claim, however much she may wish to save herself the humiliation of being dragged to a Court.

(7) That, to add to her troubles the Petitioner apprehends that the Government, also in order to recover the aforementioned balance of the loan, may proceed against the house, which is the only property left to her by her husband. And if even this be sold over her head, the Petitioner will be rendered quite destitute.

(8) That the Petitioner therefore most respectfully prays that she may be exempted from paying up the balance, and thus saved from the additional misfortune of being left without a shelter.

For which act of generosity the petitioner shall ever pray
